

Where Your Heart Should be Beating

Copyright © Alan Murray, 2023

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of five staves of music with lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: "Is it rivers of blood; or a hurric -ane Tell me_what you see. These are peo ple you're talk-ing 'bout flesh and blood and just like you and me But it's all a- bout you_ and your big car eer And it's peo ple like you that real-ly de serve our fear 'cos you've got no prin-cip-les You've got no soul. Where your heart should be_beat-ing There's just a big_black hole."

Is it rivers of blood, or a hurricane? Tell me what you see.
These are people you're talking 'bout flesh and blood and just like you and me
But it's all about you and your big career
And it's people like you that really deserve our fear
'cos you've got no principles You've got no soul.
Where your heart should be beating - there's just a big black hole.

A flag-wearing picanniny with a big watermelon smile.
These are people you're talking 'bout, flesh and blood. Your words are vile.
But it's all about you, all about your selfish heart.
And it's people like you that tear compassion apart.

They'll rape your daughters and drug your sons as well.
These are people you're talking 'bout flesh and blood. And not just fiends from hell.
But it's all about you and your ugly little mind.
And people like you are emotionally blind.

The Jews have taken your jobs and homes. Drive them from the town.
These are people you're murdering, flesh and blood. You're tearing humanity down.
But it's all about you and your master plan.
And it's people like you that kill in the name of the klan.
